Introduction

We want everyone to feel welcome at our events. We are committed to providing clear information about the accessibility of our venues and events and to support Disabled people and those with access requirements to enjoy their time at the festival.

This guide is designed to inform everybody who comes to a FilmBath event what we can offer customers who may have particular requirements.

Contact Details

Please contact Kate Hall, at team@filmbath.org.uk if you have any questions regarding this guide or accessibility at FilmBath's events.

Venue Information

FilmBath events take place in a range of venues across the city.

The following venue information is for Bath Film Festival 2026 and correct at the time of writing. For up-to-date information, please contact the venue directly.

- Bath City Football Club, Twerton Park, car park, 105 High St, Twerton, Bath BA2 1DB. The venue is wheelchair accessible, and there are accessible toilets on site. This event will take place in Randalls Bar. Parking is available on site, with 6 accessible parking bays at Twerton Park. If you would like to reserve an accessible car parking space, please email access@bathcityfootballclub.co.uk
- BLOC \(Bath Laboratory of Culture\), 7A Anglo Terrace, Bath BA1 5N. Equipped with multiple ramps, BLOC has step-free access for buggies, prams and wheelchair users. On-street parking is available on Thomas Street and London Road. Morrisons Car Park is two minutes down the road and offers 3 hours free parking to customers.
- Bath Pavilion, North Parade Road, Bathwick, Bath, BA2 4EU. There is ramp access available through the side doors only. All public areas are on the ground floor and have good access. There is one dedicated, accessible toilet. There is parking at the venue, and three accessible parking spaces.
- Everyman Bath, 6-8 Dorchester St, Bath BA1 1SS. The venue has a lift from street level, disabled facilities to enable access to the bar and lounge, all screens, and accessible toilet facilities. Headsets using Infrared transmitters are available, they can be used for either Audio Description on selected films or Hard of Hearing (film audio track) for all film screenings.
- Jamie's Farm, Hill House Farm, Ditteridge, Box, Corsham SN13 8QA. The venue is wheelchair accessible, and there are accessible parking spaces on site. However, due to the nature of the site, the terrain can be uneven. The screening will take place inside The Barn.

Parking is available; however they are limited. We recommend, where possible, carpooling.

- Komedia, 22-23 Westgate Street, Bath, BA1 1EP. For up-to-date information on Komedia, please see their very useful accessibility webpage. To understand the layout of Komedia Bath, you can click here for an interactive 3D map of the venue.
- No.1 Royal Crescent, 1 Royal Crescent, Bath, BA1 2LR. The Servant's Quarters at No. 1 Royal Crescent are accessible via stairs or lift, and there is a wheelchair accessible bathroom available. Unfortunately, in order to protect the furniture and displays, No. 1 Royal Crescent does not allow mobility scooters; however, manual wheelchairs are allowed. They have one manual wheelchair that can be borrowed if needed, so please email us at reel.life.monsters@gmail.com if you need us to put it aside for you. The film will have descriptive subtitles. Limited accessible pay-and-display parking (up to 1 hour) is available near the museum on Upper Church Street and Brock Street. Longer stay parking is available at Charlotte Street car park, about 150m away from the museum.
- Roseberry Road Studios, 25, 28 Roseberry Rd, Bath BA2 3DX. The ground floor of the studios, including toilets, is fully accessible. There are no lifts available yet to access the main upstairs gallery, unfortunately. There is no parking available at Roseberry Road, but Spring Wharf offers free customer parking for up to three hours.
- Sonder Coffee, 14 Green St, Bath BA1 2JZ. Sonder Coffee is located outside the active central security zones; Blue Badge holders can make use of standard on-street concessions. This venue has no step-free access to the screening area.
- The Egg, 36 Monmouth St, Bath BA1 2AN. The Egg is fully accessible. Reception has flat access from street level; accessible toilets can be accessed via lift, or 17 steps; all spaces can be accessed via lift. Limited on-street designated parking spaces near the Theatre Royal and the Guildhall for blue badge holders, with other city centre car parks close by. More information here.

- The Holburne Museum, Great Pulteney St, Bathwick, Bath BA2 4DB. The entrance and ground floor are level, and there is a lift to all floors. The venue has wheelchair accessible toilets, parking for Blue Badge holders, and a wheelchair can be booked in advance of your visit. If you would like to book a wheelchair for your visit, please contact The Holburne via this number, 01225 388569.
- The Little Theatre Cinema, St Michaels Place, Bath BA1 1SF. All festival screenings take place in Screen 1 which is on the ground floor; it has step-free access and one designated wheelchair space. There is no accessible toilet at this venue, however they are available at other venues nearby. Please ask venue staff for directions. There is a hearing loop in screen 1 that can be used for either Audio Description on selected films or Hard of Hearing (film audio track) for all film screenings. For further information, please click here.
- Widcombe Social Club, Lower, Widcombe Hill, Bath, BA2 6AA. There is no parking at the venue, with limited paid on-street parking close by. The closest car park is Southgate, around 9 mins walks away. The venue has an accessibility lift to access both floors, and ramps can be provided for wheelchairs if required. There are also disabled toilets on both floors

If you would like to book a space for a wheelchair, and/or need a carer ticket, please phone Bath Box Office on 01225 463 362, email them: info@bathboxoffice.org.uk or visit them at 1A Forum Buildings, Bath BA1 1UG

If you require assistance updating your account, please telephone the Bath Box Office who will be able to assist you: 01225 463362.

Travel Guide

Situated in the South West of England, the City of Bath is easily accessible to visitors. Bath Spa train station is located in the city centre, and as a mainline station, welcomes frequent trains from London (90 mins) and the south west. Bath is just a 45 minute drive from the nearest airport (Bristol), and is connected to the main London airports via the railway. Bath is also positioned perfectly for road travel, on the M4 motorway which links London to the south west.

Train

Bath Spa is served by Great Western Railway trains, with direct services from many mainline stations. Once you arrive in Bath all of our central venues are within 1 mile of the station.

Tickets and Enquiries: www.gwr.com

Park & Ride

Bath has three Park & Ride Services, all of which have a 10 minute journey time and stop centrally. Parking is free and there are services from each site seven days a week. Regular bus services run into the city at least every 15 minutes. All buses are wheelchair and pushchair friendly. If travelling by car we would recommend using the Park and Ride service as parking in Bath is limited at peak times. Once in Bath it is just a short walk to many of our central venues. For more information, please visit: <https://travelwest.info/park-ride/>

Parking in Bath

A Clean Air Zone is operational in Bath city centre.

Car parks are situated in various locations in Bath. For more information on the CAZ, car parking, including a map of local car parks, opening times and charges, visit <https://beta.bathnes.gov.uk/find-car-parks-bath>

Access for Blue Badge holders driving into the security zone (City Centre) is via Cheap Street, and Blue Badge holders wishing to gain can find out more at www.bathnes.gov.uk/bathcitycentreaccess

Taxi

Taxis can drop off outside every venue that we use.

Veezu Bath 01225 464646 <https://www.veezu.co.uk/bath>

Bus

First Bus run regular services locally and to nearby town and villages – for route maps and timetables, visit:

<https://www.firstbus.co.uk/bristol-bath-and-west>

Arrival Guide

If you need to collect your ticket on the day, the Box Office will be open in the venue one hour prior to the event.

Upon arriving at the venue, staff and stewards wearing festival t-shirts or lanyards will be happy to help guide you to your seat and any other facilities.

We are happy to provide early entrance options if audience members need to avoid crowds. Please contact the Production Officer at team@filmbath.org.uk

Medical Requirements

We welcome audience members who need to bring medicines, food or drink to manage a medical condition, or medical equipment.

A first aider will be on hand in each venue. In an emergency please contact a steward who will proceed to contact the first aider or emergency services immediately.

Strobe Lighting

There is no use of strobe lighting at our events.

Please contact our Production Assistant at team@filmbath.org.uk if you have any questions regarding medical requirements.

Relaxed Screenings (RS)

We have relaxed screenings available for some of our films, these are marked in the programme. During the relaxed screenings the lights are dimmed not off, the volume levels are a little lower than usual and you are free to move around the screen and enter and exit at any time.

Frank & Louis - 15:00 on Weds 21 Oct at Everyman Cinema

The Debut - 12:15 on Sat 24 Oct at The Little Theatre Cinema

Watch with Baby (WB)

These are relaxed screenings designed to welcome parents and carers with babies. The lights will remain gently raised and the sound will be lower than usual, so you can feed, soothe or move around with your baby as needed. There's no need to worry about crying, noise or needing to step out during the film. You're also very welcome to attend without a baby. We simply ask that all audience members are understanding and respectful of the relaxed nature of the screening and of parents, carers and babies in the audience.

Their Town - 15:15 on Sat 17 Oct at The Everyman Cinema

Further Information

We look forward to welcoming you to FilmBath and we hope you enjoy your visit.
